FAIRMOUNT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Wednesday, July 15, 2020 | Volume 73 | Number 11

We are happy to announce the next stage show to be produced at Fairmount will be The Preacher's Wife, a show based on two movies: The Bishop's Wife from 1947 starring Cary Grant, Loretta Young, and David Niven; and The Preacher's Wife from 1996 starring Denzel Washington, Whitney Houston, and Courtney B. Vance. Eight performances will be presented on the first two weekends in December.

If you're interested in participating with the production in any way - actors, backstage, set builders, and technical helpers - please visit fccsignups.info/Auditions. There you will find a signup form and a link to the complete script, character descriptions, audition info, schedules, and more.

Auditions will be held on Sunday, July 19th, for all acting roles.

With the Covid-19 virus still a concern, we are stepping out on faith that we will be able to present these shows in December to the community. Audition and rehearsal practices will be adjusted as necessary to ensure everyone is comfortable and safe.

Contact Bob Weirup (bob@weirupmarketing.com) with any questions you may have.

backyard VBS

VBS was a little different this year, but like always, we had a lot of fun and learned truths from God's word! Six FCC families hosted VBS in their backyards and the Fairmount Child Care Program hosted one at church. We averaged 150 kids each day at VBS and 75 volunteers each day. Kids learned lessons about how to be a peacemaker, to forgive, and to control their anger. We made crafts, played games (even had a water day), worshipped together, learned about a local mission, and enjoyed delicious snacks. Enjoy these photos from VBS!
