Here at Fairmount, it's the Year of Jesus.

Hebrews 12:1-2

... Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

In February, we are enjoying the "Psalms of the Savior".

Among the many glimpses of Jesus in the Psalms, we see Jesus as a Good Shepherd, as a Suffering Servant, and as a Sovereign King.

Psalm 110 points to a future King who will rule all other kings.

Psalm 110

The Lord says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

The Lord will extend your mighty scepter from Zion, saying, "Rule in the midst of your enemies!"

Your troops will be willing on your day of battle. Arrayed in holy splendor, your young men will come to you like dew from the morning's womb.

The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind: "You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."

The Lord is at your right hand; he will crush kings on the day of his wrath.

He will judge the nations, heaping up the dead and crushing the rulers of the whole earth.

He will drink from a brook along the way, and so he will lift his head high.

The Old Testament promised such a King.

Jesus IS that King.

- He preached about His kingdom.

Matthew 4:23

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

- He demonstrated He is King.

Matthew 28:18

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me."

- He is King of kings.

Revelation 19:11-16

I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and wages war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself. He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Coming out of his mouth is a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron scepter." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: king of kings and lord of lords.

Our task is to honor King Jesus.
