

He Gets Us

WEEK 3 | THE GREAT PHYSICIAN | MARK 2:1-12

INSPECTION: WHAT DOES IT SAY?

What had happened between the healing of the leper and Jesus entering Capernaum?
In whose house was Jesus staying while in Capernaum?
What was Jesus preaching? How was it different from the teachers of the law?
How did Jesus find out what the teachers of the law were thinking?
According to Jesus, from where does our thinking originate?

OBSERVATION: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Is it more important to have your sins forgiven or to be healed from some illness? Why?
How was it that Jesus could forgive sins before He died on the cross?
What part does faith and works play in our spiritual healing?
Why did Jesus heal the sickness first and then forgive sins?
What lesson do we learn from those who were amazed by what they had seen?

SUPPLICATION: WHAT CAN WE MEDITATE?

Psalm 25

In You, Lord my God, I put my trust.

I trust in You; do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

No one who hopes in You will ever be put to shame,

But shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause.

Show me Your ways, Lord, teach me Your paths.

Guide me in Your truth and teach me, for You are God my Savior,

And my hope is in You all day long.

Remember, Lord, Your great mercy and love, for they are from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways;

According to Your love remember me, for You, Lord, are good.

Good and upright is the Lord; therefore, He instructs sinners in His ways.

He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them His way.

All the ways of the Lord are loving and faithful

Toward those who keep the demands of His covenant.

For the sake of Your name, Lord, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.

Who, then, are those who fear the Lord?

He will instruct them in the ways they should choose.

They will spend their days in prosperity, and their descendants will inherit the land.

The Lord confides in those who fear Him; He makes His covenant known to them.

My eyes are ever on the Lord, for only He will release my feet from the snare.

Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.

Relieve the troubles of my heart and free me from my anguish.

Look on my affliction and my distress and take away all my sins.

See how numerous my enemies are and how fiercely they hate me!

Guard my life and rescue me; do not let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in You.

May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope, Lord, is in You.

Deliver Israel, O God, from all their troubles!
