

WEEK 1 | SUBMITTING TO SCRIPTURE | 2 TIMOTHY 3:10-17

Inspection: What Does It Say?

With what are verses 10 and 11 written in contrast to earlier verses in the chapter?

What outcome comes to those who desire to live a godly life as seen in verse 12?

What suffering mentioned in verse 11 did Paul experience in Lystra as is recorded in Acts 14:8-20?

According to verse 15, what effects does the “Holy Scriptures” have on those who learn from it?

What five benefits does Scripture prove itself useful as seen in verses 16 and 17?

Observation: What Does It Mean?

In what way does God always deliver His people? Reference verse 11.

What is meant by the word “continue” in verse 14?

What value are uninspired writings compared to “God-breathed,” inspired writings?

How does Old Testament Scripture make one wise unto salvation?

Why is it vital to consider one’s self a “servant of God” as seen in verse 17?

Life Application: What Does It Mean For Me?

Define five of the nine particulars recorded in verse 10.

Consider how Scripture has equipped you for ministry.

Pray that God’s Word will penetrate evildoers and impostors.

Make a list of Scriptures that encourage in the midst of suffering.

Provide a Bible to someone as a gift.

Meditation: What Does God Say?

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

Colossians 3:16

1 Corinthians 10:11-12 Hebrews 4:12-13

2 Peter 1:19

Romans 15:4

Revelation 21:5

Psalms 1:1-3

Supplication: What Can We Meditate?

In Genesis He is our Creator. In Exodus our Passover. In Leviticus our High Priest. In Numbers the Daily Presence in our wilderness. In Deuteronomy our Manna. In Joshua the Captain of our Conquests. In Judges our Deliverer. In Ruth our Redeemer. In the books of Samuel the Everlasting Prophet. In Kings and Chronicles the King of Kings. In Ezra the Fulfillment of God's Promise. In Nehemiah the Builder of broken walls. In Esther our Intercessor. In Job He is the Helpful Friend. In Psalms He is everything from Lamb to Shepherd. In Proverbs our Wisdom. In Ecclesiastes the Reason for Living. In Song of Solomon the Faithful Lover. In Isaiah He is our Sacrifice. In Jeremiah the Warning Signal of danger. In Lamentations the Compassionate One. In Ezekiel the Giver of Life to dry bones. In Daniel the fourth man in the fires of life. In Hosea He is the Forgiving Husband. In Joel the Promiser of the Holy Spirit. In Amos the Spokesman and Helper of the Poor. In Obadiah our Vindicator. In Jonah the Bridge across human barriers. In Micah our Hope. In Nahum the Visiting Comforter. In Habakkuk the Faithful One. In Zephaniah the Voice Calling for repentance. In Haggai the Restorer of our Inheritance. In Zechariah the Son of David. In Malachi the Sovereign One of God.

In Matthew He is the Jewish Messiah. In Mark the Servant Messiah. In Luke the Universal Messiah. In John the Divine Messiah.

In Acts He is the Reconciler over all the barriers. In Romans He is the Justifier. In 1 Corinthians He is love. In 2 Corinthians the Forgiver. In Galatians our Liberty. In Ephesians our Unity. In Philippians He is joy. In Colossians the image of God. In 1 Thessalonians the Comforter. In 2 Thessalonians the One who will come again. In 1 Timothy our Mediator. In 2 Timothy the Spirit of power, love, and self-control. In Titus the Faithful Pastor. In Philemon the Reconciler.

In Hebrews He is the Superior High Priest and Sacrifice. In James the Doer of God's Word. In 1 Peter the Holy One. In 2 Peter the Patient One. In the letters of John God's Righteousness wrapped in love. In Jude the One to deliver the saints. And in Revelation the Victorious One.