

PSALMS OF THE SAVIOR

WEEK 4 | REJECTED STONE | PSALM 118

Inspection: What Does It Say?

What phrase did the psalm writer encourage Israel to say in verses 1-4?

What phrase did the psalm writer rely on for help in verses 10-12?

What phrase in verses 19-21 connects with John 10:7-10?

What insight does the Christian have about verse 17 compared to the psalmist?

According to verse 18, from where did the psalm writer believe the source of his chastisement came?

Observation: What Does It Mean?

What is the significance of the phrase the “Lord’s right hand” in Scripture?

How does the word “bees” in verse 12 rightly describe your life and struggles?

How does Psalm 118 end in verses 28-29? Why is this important?

Who is the son in Mark 12:1-12, and what happened to him?

What part of verse 22 did Peter change in Acts 4:11 and why?

Life Application: What Does It Mean For Me?

Why is “fear” of the Lord important to our suffering in life?

Consider how you deal with difficult times and apply verse 1 daily.

Make a daily “offering of praise” to God each morning as you start your day.

Underline the word “Lord” in this Psalm. How many times can you find this word?

Make a plan of prayer, fasting, and thanksgiving leading up to Resurrection Sunday.

Meditation: What Does God Say?

Ephesians 2:20

1 Corinthians 3:11

Isaiah 28:16

Matthew 21:42

1 Peter 2:4

Isaiah 8:14

Daniel 2:34-35

Luke 6:49

Supplication: What Can We Meditate?

Cornerstone

Ahem
You ready, man?
Okay, yeah

Lookin' out my window, feelin' the crescendo
Sunset on a quiet sea
Sitting with the ones that I'll forever love
We're waitin' on a flash of green

And even when the nights got cold (got cold)
You have always held me close (me close)
You're the only rock that I could ever stand on
You're the only one for me

The sun goes up, the sun comes down
This old world keeps spinnin' 'round
I'm here travelin' down this long and winding road
Seasons come and seasons go

They take me high, then leave me low
But I'm still standing on the only rock I know
You're my cornerstone
Oh, oh, oh, no matter where I go, my cornerstone

Bible by my bedside, sweatin' through a long night
Wrestling the hounds of shame
Tryna turn the hands back on a troublin' past
Every move I make's in vain

But even in the shifting winds
You are who You've always been
You're the only rock that I could ever stand on
Through it all You remain

The sun goes up, the sun comes down
This old world keeps spinnin' 'round
I'm here travelin' down this long and winding road (this winding road)
Yeah, seasons come and seasons go

They take me high, then leave me low
But I'm still standing on the only rock I know
You're my cornerstone
Oh, oh, oh, no matter where I go, my cornerstone
Oh, oh, oh, no matter where I go, Mister Zach Williams

Supplication: What Can We Meditate?

On Christ, the solid rock I'm standin'
All of the ground is sinking sand
On Christ, the solid rock I'm standin'
All of the ground is sinking sand

On Christ, the solid rock I'm standin', yes Lord
You're the only one that I will build my life on
Through it all You remain

The sun goes up, the sun comes down
This old world keeps spinnin' around
And I'm here travelin' down this long and winding road
Seasons come, seasons go

I've been high and I've been low
But I'm standing on the only rock I know
You're my cornerstone

Oh, oh, oh, no matter where I go, my cornerstone (all of the ground is sinking sand)
Oh, oh, oh, no matter where I go (all of the ground is sinking sand)
The sun goes up and the sun comes down (all of the ground is sinking sand)
And I build my life on this solid rock (all of the ground is sinking sand)

Oh, yeah
You are the only rock I stand on
